MEMORIAL DAY—MAY 28th.

At a meeting of the Confederate Monumental Association held on the 7th inst., it was resolved, that the 28th of May, should be our annual "Memorial Day," for the Confederates dead at this place.

Gen Geo. B. Hodge, will deliver the address for the occasion.

Fennell's Cornet Band will be in attendance.

Let all our friends prepare a bouquet for the 28th.

A programme for the occasion will be published containing orders of the day.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

An election of State officers took place in New York on the 17th, and an overwhelming majority of 55,000 is the glorious result. This is but the beginning of the end. The usual appliances of Radical corruption, together with the prestige of that unseemly abortion, the XV Amendment, did not save the Mongrel crew from this Waterloo defeat. State after State is wheeling into column, and the Great National Democratic Party, inspired and reassured by its recent successes, is proudly marching to overwhelming and complete victory.

THE DEATH OF J. H. JOHNSON.

We copy the following from the Lexington Observer and Reporter: Capt. J. H. Johnson—widely known as "Yuba Dam"—died in this city on Thursday, May 14th, at the early age of thirty-nine. He was a victim of that disease which is our national curse—consumption. He suffered greatly before he died, and death to him came as a welcome messenger of peace. A weary heart has ceased to beat—a heart in which the afflictions of this life had fallen with a most desolating force. Capt. Johnson was a native of Vermont, and was born in Plymouth, in that State, May 15th, 1831. He came to Kentucky in 1851. He practiced law in this State for a short time, but soon found so much pleasure in the gratification of his literary tastes as a writer for the press, that he gave up the profession of the law, and adopted that of the journalist. He was at one time editor of the Kentucky Statesman, of this city, and was also connected with the Frankfort Yeoman, the Frankfort Commonwealth and the Louisville Courier. It was during his connection with the last named journal that he wrote the humorous and satirical letters signed "Yuba Dam," which attracted so much attention. Capt. Johnson was for one year, editor of the Kentucky Age, published at Cynthiana, before the war. Capt. Johnson was married in 1855 to a daughter of Dr. McMillan, of this city. Mrs. Johnson died of consumption in 1866, and her devoted husband was never the same man afterwards. His happiness was on tombed with the idol of his affection, and never had an earthly resurrection.

Capt. Johnson went into the Federal army during the late war with the rank of second lieutenant, and was promoted in 1863 to a captaincy for gallant conduct.

Six months ago the relentless disease which had fastened itself upon him, seemed impotent of its victim. It redoubled its ravages with fatal effect, and to day J. H. Johnson, the brilliant humorist, satirist and wit, the kind-hearted and generous friend, will be laid at rest by the side of those he loved better than his life.

NEW YORK ELECTION:

An Overwhelming Democratic Victory.

75,000 MAJORITY IN THE STATE!

60,000 Majority in New York City

THREE CHEERS FOR EMPIRE STATE.

NEW YORK, May 17, 1870.

The negro was in his glory to-day. With the Fifteenth Amendment before his eyes, he made the most of the opportunity offered him to exercise the right of suffrage. Never before did he assume such an air of importance. How well he began his work as an elector is seen in the fact that in several instances he marched to the polls, and made a bold effort to vote illegally. The only arrests for illegal voters to-day were those of colored repeaters.

In the Ninth Ward there was a rich scene when an old negress insisted upon voting. She told the Inspector, "Dat all de niggers oughter vote as women as well as de men, and dat what de demaster." Upon being informed that her time had not yet come, she rushed wildly into the street urging everybody to vote "in faber ob de Sixteenthment." Notwithstanding the negro vote, the Democratic majority in the city is about sixty thousand.

The City of New York gives the Democratic ticket a majority of 60,000. Bravo! for New York City. Brooklyn gives a Democratic majority of 10,000. Good.

The State has given 75,000 Democratic majority.

A GENUINE SECESSION.

Not many weeks ago, a well-to-do farmer of Harrison county, Ky., declared that he was determined not "to see a nigger vote." The XVth Amendment was announced as ratified. Of course Negro voting was then in the near future. So our farmer saw it coming and absolutely did take his own life. He sealed his Democratic testimony with his own blood. The Bible says, when lust is conceived it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. This is the spirit, which more or less modified, rules the Kentucky Secesh. However, most of them would prefer killing to dying.—Lex. Statesman.

The above lines we publish for the benefit of our republican friends in Harrison. The man referred to in the above lines, took sides with the Union party, the federal party, the radical party; and no man was more faithful to that party than he until the faithless government repudiated its promise not to interfere with slavery, repudiated its promise to pay the loyal men for their slaves, and finally for that government to prove faithless and violate the confidence and trifle with the power and influence which had been given it by such men, as the one spoken of above. He then quit the concern. He never was a rebel, or favored secession. He done more than ten such tellows as the one who indicted the above for the Union and the rebels. But so corrupt and faithless have the mongrels become that they will slander dead men, or serpent like bite themselves in their dying struggles.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF CYNTHIANA.

It will be a source of gratification to the friends of education in this county, that, since the publication of my last article on the interests of the country Public Schools, a number of applications have been made to the Commissioners for the establishment of new districts in different portions of the county, and measures have been adopted to erect several new school houses in the place of the old, dilapidated structures of a former age. I now propose to draw the attention of the patrons of education to a much needed reform in the public schools of Cynthiana.

The new school law provides that when a city, town, or village establishes and maintains a system of Common Schools, adequate to the teaching of all the children therein, son, of Frankfort, Kentucky, I went the same shall be deemed one district, and entitled to its share of the school fund.

The city of Cynthiana, with its surrounding population, in order to secure its full proportion of the school fund, should, in accordance with the provision of this section, be constituted one district, and a graded school established within its limits, adequate to the accommodation and public instruction of all the children therein.

The Legislature, at its recent session, empowered the county court to appropriate seven thousand dollars toward the improvement and enlargement of the academy, which, I understand, is the property of the county. With the aid of this appropriation, and by dint of private enterprise, or local taxation, the City of Cynthiana will be enabled to establish and inaugurate a graded school, equal in its educational advantages, to any of the graded schools now in successful operation in all of the large cities in the State.

The superior advantages of a school of this kind for the instruction of the youth of Cynthiana, in an educational as well as financial point of view, are many, and, certainly, so obvious that none, who have taken the trouble to reflect upon this subject, will dispute them. The public schools of Lexington, and Frankfort, while they are the pride and boast of those cities, afford instruction to all their children, rich and poor alike, for the same length of time, and for the same expenditure of money that private enterprise could for less than half of them. The latter provides only for the rich and able, from year to year, and leaves the unfortunate poor to ignorance and destitution. In view, therefore, of the obvious and general benefits to be derived from a graded school, such as can be established in Cynthiana by the exertions of the friends of education, the enterprising and public-spirited citizens of Cynthiana and the surrounding community, if they would have the cause of education to prosper and advance in their midst, will take steps which will ensure the early consummation of this much-needed measure of school reform. About three hundred children would share in the superior advantages of such a school. It would not fail to prove a blessing to the community. Where they have been established, they are most popular. The proportion of the school fund to which the district would be entitled, would not fall far short of $800 annually; the balance, necessary to the support of the school, would have to be realized by local taxation under the provisions of a special law.

ARE ALL THE COMPANY PRESENT?—CALL THE ROLL.—WHO ANSWERS?

MAJOR MOREY:—Will you give space, in the News, for the names of my patrons in the neighborhood of the "Gray's Run School House," between and including the years 1832 and 1847? The history, or rather list of the names of any four or six square miles is, I know, somewhat local, yet it requires the histories of all such localities to make up that of our county. I am well aware of another fact, that the present generation is so much engaged in "prospecting" as to feel but little inclined to "re-prospect" the days of past years. Still, in the face of the over-powering pursuit of pecuniary possibilities, and of the all-governing glories of golden greatness; I have the impudence, perhaps imprudence, to ask that a few names of persons, who once honored, at least one neighborhood, in Harrison county, may be read and remembered. Forgotten, these names may be, by others, but, by me, never. The men and women, their children, and grand-children, who bore the names on the following "Roll," may have passed away, or may leave these lower lands before I do, yet, in "memory dear," I will, while living, fondly cherish their names in connection with past events and dates.

Before giving the names of those inscribed on Memory's Roll, I deem it proper to state, for the benefit of my young readers, (should I have any,) how I came to be introduced to the people of "Gray's Run neighborhood." In March, 1832, on leaving the Seminary, in Cynthiana, then under the preceptorial care of Mr. Howard M. Henderson, (whose native State was Massachusetts,) the father of the Rev. H. A. M. Henderson, son of Frankfort, Kentucky, I went out among strangers, not knowing whither; and met and applied to Mr. James Jameson, for a school in the "Gray's Run neighborhood," and received but little encouragement, for I carried with me no recommendation signed by "honored names well known;" my youthful appearance and coarse and scanty wardrobe made nothing in my favor; the school house needed chinking and plastering, the stem of the chimney, from the coping up, had not been built, and all hands were required in the fields. Having expended all the money I had, (except 75 cents), for books, tuition and board, the least encouragement caused a grateful emotion. "A friend in need is a friend indeed." Finally, after repeated applications, Mr. Jameson said if I would help, he would try to prepare the house for the use of a school. We went at it, chinking and plastering the cracks between the logs, and carrying rocks to finish the chimney. After which I made seats and a writing desk, and launched my little boat, Experiment, for a trial trip of three months, in the sober, industrious, moral and honorable neighborhood of "Gray's Run School House." My main purpose was, to earn money enough to enable me to prosecute the study of the law, to which study, I had devoted all the time I could spare, from other duties, for two years previous, under the instruction of the late Hon. Judge J. H. Trimble, reading when I could, and working when I must. To his office I intended to return, as I was, (he said) about prepared for an examination preparatory to receiving lawyer's license. But such success attended the Experiment, in its first and succeeding trips of 90 days each, that I was encouraged to remain there 12 years, in every proper view, to any other kind of school in existence, except a private or family school. Moral training always has been the preserver of physical health, and of genuine mental ability. If children are permitted, by their parents, to talk as they please, curse when they please, drink when they please, gamble when they please, go when they please, come when they please, work when they please, (that is work none,) and keep any company they please, no school under Heaven, can make such children good, great and what they ought to be. A reasonable amount of "good old fashioned hard work," under wise parental control and supervision, constitutes seven-eights of all the true genuine education in our country.

Names of those dead: James Jameson, David Hampshire, James Nichols, Daniel Ammerman, Coeninan D. Reed, Michel Bumbarger, Benson Roberts, William R. Fowler, Levi Ashbrook, Andrew Scott, John M. Kimbrough, William G. Hedges, Hiram Lewis, Joseph Ammerman, Samuel V. Hamilton, Captain William Gray, Sen. Francis Gray, Sen. Samuel Gray, John Hesford, Esquire William Patton, Jacob Boyers, Dennis Nichols, Thomas Hamilton, Jacob Mason, Col. George W. Berry, who boarded his son in the neighborhood, Robert Madison, Granville Cason, Edward, Coleman, who sent John E and Lemuel T. Fisher, his grand sons, William Coleman and Reuben L Coleman.

Names of those either living or dead, perhaps half the number dead: Benjamin Roberts, Hillary M. Bedford, William Nesbitt, Stephen L. Garrard, John Douglass, James Thompson, Andrew Lowry, Esquire William English, Jonathan Bassett and William E. Boswell.

Names of those known to be living: Martin Smith, Wesley Sparks, John Bruce, Lewis Day, Esq., J. N. Lair and B. C. Day. Forty-six names of those who were my patrons within the period mentioned, but not all at the same time, as several of them occupied the same farm or farms, at different dates &c and only 6 of that number are now known to me to be alive! The others are scattered by death or emigration, and their places generally occupied by strangers, within the space of between 38 and 23 years! Surely we are "passing away!" The place that now knows us, will soon know us no more. What! only 6 out of 46 of the heartiest, healthiest, most industrious and best friends I ever had in any neighborhood, alive only 6! Two in Cynthiana, one near that city, one at Colemansville, one at Berry's Station and one in Covington. Shorty, some of these will depart for the unknown country, never to return. The writer may be the first to go. Oh! Merciful God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, prepare the little remnant for the great change that must soon take place. The writer is 61 this day.

P. S.—Fewer of the children of neighborhood," in proportion to the whole number, became immoral, useless, vain, stuck up coxcomb and perfumed, disgusting dandies, than in any neighborhood I have ever known. Their moral character, obedience to parents and teachers, good manners and polite bearing were, I have no doubt, the results of parental training, which is perceivable now wherever they are. They were nearly all brought up to manual labor in such constancy as to form habits of business, the proper discharge of which grew to be a duty. They carried these habits and this duty with them into the school room, which greatly diminished the labors of the teacher. His time was employed in teaching, which is a pleasure, and not in governing, which, if requiring harshness, is the most unpleasant part of a teacher's life. Who were the co-teacher assistants teachers in this school? The parents who were blessed with a great deal of practical good common sense.

One remark more before I close. A country school in such a neighborhood as that was, in which the Gray's Run School was taught, is, when the best interests of all considered—the very kind of an educational institution, which all good and wise parents will build up by their money and influence, for the greatest good of their posterity. For the good of the great mass—the millions—a good country school in a good moral and industrious neighborhood, is, far, very far superior, in every proper view, to any other kind of school in existence, except a private or family school. Moral training always has been the preserver of physical health, and of genuine mental ability. If children are permitted, by their parents, to talk as they please, curse when they please, drink when they please, gamble when they please, go when they please, come when they please, work when they please, (that is work none,) and keep any company they please, no school under Heaven, can make such children good, great and what they ought to be. The first impressions are the strongest; The first impressions last the longest. B. N. C.

A LETTER FROM MISSOURI.

BOWLING GREEN, Mo., May 9th, 1870.

FRIEND MOREY:—As the News has got to be a very irregular visitor, I would suggest, that you inform your Postmasters of the fact, that there is a Bowling Green, in Mo., as well as one in Ky., that (Weekly) expects a package of the News. When I commenced the above, I did not think of writing more than a line or two, but as my hand seems willing to go on, I have thought of an item that doubtless will be read with interest, at least by the relations and friends of the Evans-Harrisons and Bourbons, now living in this (Vile) county, whose names I take the liberty to mention. I will speak first of those living nearest me: Andrew Lowry, his wife, and a single daughter constitute the family at present. He has a splendid farm, and is a successful farmer. His two sons, William and James, and sons-in-law, Charles Sidel and —— Lawrence, are all living immediately around him, on good farms of their own. Kensie McMillen has raised a large family of which two are still single; his health is very feeble. Elliot Roberts, his family are all married and scattered to the four winds. John Roberts, (son of Elliot,) is raising a large family of children, he complains of bad luck, (only) one of them died. I believe John can beat the world raising corn and vegetables. He may be good on gourds too, I'll ask him. Joseph Callis, no family now, old lady died a few weeks ago. George Sidel and family, are noted here for their industry. Hon. D. L. Caldwell, (son-in-law of Andrew Garnett,) and our representative in the Legislature, who did not forget the will of his constituency by voting against the 13th amendment, and never to return. The writer may be the first to go. Oh! Merciful God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, prepare the little remnant for the great change that must soon take place. The writer is 61 this day.

"The Heated Term" is Coming.

The Summer months will very soon be fairly ushered in with their sultry weather and long train of diseases. It is the season when nature can do little in recuperating our exhausted strength, and when we are required to fortify our physique against the dangers arising from the diverse prevalence of sickness. The only safe and sure and reliable tonic and invigorator, MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS, which is endorsed and recommended by the medical faculty and by numerous physicians in every city, town and village in the country, who have tested its remedial virtues by its itself, presented or recommended by their authority. It is a specific for all diseases, and affords immediate relief in cases of Dysentery, Colic, Cholera, Cholera Mortis, and kindred diseases. Provide your self now against a time of need. Delays are often dangerous.

Koskoo.

This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonies of its virtues given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, LIVER DISEASE, &c.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Wilson, M. D., President of the Medical College, City of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence. Its composition, and also puts "Koskoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day.

An Injurious Report Corrected.

The report published in the Cincinnati daily, on Thursday of last week, relating to the arrest of William Mefford, at Cynthiana, Kentucky, on charge of embezzlement was altogether erroneous. Certain parties in Rushville, Indiana, attempted to kidnap the person referred to, but were defeated in that attempt, and were glad to make a satisfactory settlement with him afterwards. The who affair was a really trick, designed to injure my business. I was not taken through Covington, nor anywhere else on the day mentioned.

There will be preaching on Friday and Saturday nights, and on Sabbath by some one of the committee.

Suicide in Gallatin County.

On Saturday night Miss Eliza Holton, a young lady thirty years of age, committed suicide at the residence of her brother, Park Holton, Esq., near Warsaw, Gallatin county, Ky., by drowning herself in a cistern. About three months ago her mother, to whom she was devotedly attached, died, since which time she has been melancholy and low spirited, and several weeks ago attempted suicide by shooting herself. After this attempt at self destruction she was carefully watched; but on Saturday night she managed to elude the vigilance of her friends, and threw herself into a cistern in the rear of the house, where her body was found next morning.

Town Talk.

O. B. Thompson, died in this city, on Sunday last, about 1 o'clock, aged 88 years. Mr. Thompson, at one time in his life, was looked upon as man of superior genius. In pothes he was a Whig, and a great friend of Henry Clay. We have heard him say but little of politics for the past 15 years, but know he held a great contempt for the revolutionary policy pursued by the radicals since they came into power. For many years past he has sustained himself by traveling through the country mending old clocks.—He was buried last Monday.

YESTERDAY MORNING J. A. THOMPSON, who has been residing in the Leesburg precinct, of this county, passed through Cynthiana, en route for his new home, in Fayette, Howard county, Mo. We wish our friend great success in his new home, for he is a worthy gentleman.

Silas Church and Leesburg Turnpike was let last week, to Maher & Collins for $1 per rod—Bridges and Masonry extra.

John McKee, our county commissioner, has received one mile and a quarter of the Turnpike road, known as the Cynthiana, Connersville and Scott co. road.

Last week an old gentleman, named James Russell, put up at the Harrison Hotel, in this city, and said that he was 101 year old. He has been around the world.

Mrs. Long, who was stabbed by her husband severely, was on the streets last week walking about.

"Madam Rumor," who by the way is a great busy body, says there is to be a meeting in this county, a wedding in "high life." The future pair, "Madam Rumor," has a charming young widow, a distinguished representative of the beauty of our famed blue grass region, and a gentleman widely known in many circles.

Noah Frazer and family arrived in this city last Monday.

K. C. Wherrett, has just received a fine stock of fresh dry goods.

Thus, Norrie, of Lexington, was in Cynthiana last week.

J. Reneker, Jr., has gone east with stock.

Church of the Advent-Protestant Episcopal.

DISSOLUTION.

Hating dissolved partnership, we desire, that all persons, knowing themselves indebted to us, will pay to us, as soon as possible, the sum due, and settle thereby saving us and themselves further trouble and expense. We must have money and that rightaway.

In-Constancy of Women.

A woman in Indiana married a man by the name of Wright, and the next day she eloped with a man named Head. Probably the correspondence between the seducer and the woman was about as follows, in the language of the old saying:

"My dear—Be sure you are Wright and then go! A. HEAD."

Misconduct.

Rev. Dr. Clark, of Allegheny, Pa., is to be overhauled by meeting of the Presbytery for "misconduct" toward a young lady of his congregation. "Miss" Conduct is getting to be a daily occurrence with those festive demonstrators of the Word. Next!

Robbed.

Elijah Morris, who is carrying on a dry-goods house near Worrell's Mills, on Licking River, was robbed of $150 cash last Friday night.

King's Vegetable Ambrosia.

Who would not exchange the dry, brash and faded locks caused by humors of the scalp, for the dark, glossy ones of youth? If any one is in doubt as to which of the Hair Preparations now in the market is best, let him at once procure a bottle of King's Vegetable Ambrosia, and thereby save precious time which would otherwise be lost.

MAYFLOWER, JR.,

WILL stand the present season at Cynthiana, and will be permitted to serve sires at $15 to insure a mare in foal, and ten dollars the season—money due when the mare is known to be in foal or more parted with. Season money due when the service is rendered, with the privilege of returning the mare next year, should the mare be sold.

Good blue grass for mares left to breed, all grain if required at reasonable rates. All care taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible should any occur.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE
MAYFLOWER in color is very rich and variegated, 15½ hands high, 9 years old, weighs 1,000 lbs., in form style, action and energy he has no superior. He goes as the elegant, fashionable and fancy saddle gait in the most imitable style, either by himself or in company with others, now coming in use and all who have them think them the best movers they have ever owned. Some few may be found in or near Cynthiana at this time. Those who have any taste for saddle stock would do well to call to see the horse, and also his producer.

MAYFLOWER was exhibited at the State Fair, and shown to be a most valuable horse in their opinion that he was the best saddle horse in the ring, as also every person who has seen him, as no horse bears such a reputation as a sure footed getter.

MAYFLOWER was raised by Bob Adair, of Mayville. He was sired by the old imported Arabian Stallion Mayflower; his dam a sorrel mare by Imported Buckhannan, and his mother by Imported Buckhannan.

I will take pleasure in showing the horse to persons by them calling at my Office, on Main Street, in Jones' Row.

RING'S VEGETABLE AMBROSIA.

This favorite Hair Restorer has been before the public long enough to have been thoroughly tested and its increasing sale and popularity are the best evidences of its superiority. A Recovery Gray hair is restored to color has no equal. Foregoing rumors of the scalp and preventing it from growing is a wonderful success. For preventing the Hair from falling off it is unequalled. For restoring Hair to Bald Heads it succeeds beyond competition, although not always successful. Where the glands or follicles are not destroyed hairs seem to grow after using it properly. As a dressing nothing surpasses it. It imparts a dry, faded and wavy hair that beautiful gloss appears somewhat admixed. Continuing to allow growth it does not soil the finest linens.

It is compounded upon Scientific principles of the purest ingredients and is entirely harmless. Being prepared with the most fragrant Extracts its odor is delightful. Testimonials almost without number can be given if necessary but the AMBROSIA is too well known to require them once you will never be without it.
